Pasco County Libraries now offering Digital Magazines

~~'Flipster' provides electronic issues of some of today's most popular magazines~~

PASCO COUNTY, FL ---- Patrons of the Pasco County Library System (PCLS) can now read some of their favorite magazines on their computer, phone or tablet using Flipster - a next-generation magazine service that allows users to browse digital versions of popular magazines.

With internet access and a valid PCLS card, patrons can access current magazines and back issues online, or download them to Android, Apple, and Kindle Fire devices for offline reading anytime, anywhere.

The 16 digital magazine titles currently available are:

Cooking Light	O, The Oprah Magazine
Country Living	Prevention
Good Housekeeping	Real Simple
HGTV Magazine	Romantic Homes
House Beautiful	Southern Living
Kiplinger's Personal Finance	This Old House
People	Time
Popular Mechanics	Us Weekly

Here's what some Pasco County Library patrons are saying about the new digital service:

"I love this new online service. The pages are beautiful! It works really fast, and it offers the most popular magazines." – Frances, Library Patron

"Flipster's fun. The magazines download right onto my phone, and the pages can be swiped quickly. The image is super sharp." – Meghan, Library Patron

To learn more about Flipster and to start reading your favorite magazines in digital format, please visit the Pasco County Library System website at: PascoLibraries.org.
