

Farm Share Holiday Food Giveaway

This month families in Pasco County were able to pick up fresh food donated by Farm Share, Publix and other community organizations at two holiday food drives. The first food giveaway was hosted by U.S. Rep. Gus Bilirakis, State Sen. Wilton Simpson, Rep. Danny Burgess and the Dade City Kiwanis Foundation on Saturday, December 6 at the Dade City Business Center in Dade City.

The second event on Friday, December 13 at the Faith Baptist Church in Port Richey was the 20th Annual holiday food giveaway hosted by Pasco County Tax Collector Mike Fasano, State Sen. John Legg, Rep. Richard Corcoran and Rep. Amanda Murphy.

Farm Share's mission is to alleviate hunger and malnutrition by recovering and distributing fresh and nutritious food, donated by Florida's farmers, to those who need it most. Patricia Robbins the founder of Farm Share is from the Dade City area in Pasco County. To learn more about Farm Share visit their site at www.farmshare.org.
