You can also find used books online. If you type in on Google search by the ISBN# and it pulls up all the books found. Keep in mind many of the books are used so it may not be in the perfect condition but it's much cheaper. It will also find new books. You can also search libraries and other local bookstores. Please double check it is the same book on your testing list for Prometric will not allow any substitutes.

You can obtain the ISBN# thru the book manufacture of the book.
