The Kumquat Festival is a tourism based event focused on area promotion through a partnership with the tourism, agricultural and arts & crafts industries.
It is an open access festival, manned by volunteers, which markets Eastern Pasco County statewide, and as an added attraction for the enjoyment of tourists staying in our area.
The Festival has become the Signature Event for Eastern Pasco County, attracting over 45,000 visitors and garnering a great deal of media attention.
Other marketed events, which run through January prior to the festival, include grove tours, tourist educational presentations, Relay for Life, Miss Kumquat activities and other festival related events, all with a strong emphasis on Visit Pasco County for an "old Florida Experience".

These events take place weeks prior to the Festival, and produce awareness of the area, in conjunction with the "Kumquat Festival Brand"

The 2013 TDC grant will be leveraged with sponsors and industry partners to assist in marketing Pasco County statewide.

The 2012 event generated 154 Room Nights as verified by the TDC Room Night Hotel form, and an additional 62 visitors surveyed staying at campgrounds etc. (representing only the percentage actually surveyed)

The major difference in the event in 2012 was our ability to receive "verified" room nights from our hoteliers.

Out of hundreds of returned Pasco TDC Visitor Surveys, an additional 62 of the surveys indicated "campground, vacation rental etc." This result is from 300 surveys, out of 45,000 attendees.

14. ESTIMATED NUMBER OF OUT-OF-COUNTY ATTENDEES/PARTICIPANTS (not overnight): 25,000

15. WHAT IS THE ESTIMATED ECONOMIC IMPACT IN DOLLARS?

The Office of Tourism Development uses the out-of-state event formula provided by VISIT FLORIDA and the FLORIDA SPORTS FOUNDATION (available upon request). A thorough economic impact analysis should be conducted on your event since no two events are similar in size, audience, location and time of the season. Please attribute your formula, research study and/or information.

The economic impact multipliers for the Annual Kumquat Festival are lower than the multipliers used by the State formula since the demographics of the event are heavily based towards retirees and value seeking families. The formula below has not increased year on year, and adequately reflects the costs of local merchandise, vendor products, food and beverage and accommodation in our area, with possibly gasoline being an anomaly.

Current State Multipliers (supplied by TDC)

ADULT Out-of-State: $143	YOUTH Out-of-State: $72
ADULT In-State: $72	YOUTH In-State: $36
ADULT In-County: $24	YOUTH In-County: $12

Adjusted Kumquat Festival Multipliers (below State average by 25%)

Pasco County Accommodation	- 180 room nights	@ $ 99	= $ 17,820
In State Adult Attendees	- 20,000	@ $ 34	= $ 680,000
In State Youth Attendees	- 5,000	@ $ 24	= $ 120,000
In County Adult Attendees	- 15,000	@ $ 24	= $ 360,000
In County Youth Attendees	- 5,000	@ $ 12	= $ 60,000
		Total	$ 1,237,820

(see below for key areas when answering question)

RECYCLING AT AN EVENT

At the April 11, 2011, TDC Meeting the TDC initiated a recycling segment to the application process. The goal is to integrate a recycling message with the County's Tourism brand: "It's Only Natural." The applications will not be scored on recycling, but based on the results and post event reports the TDC may advise the BCC to permanently add recycling to the scoring process. Please provide the information requested below to assist the Recycling Coordinator and this initiative.

From the Pasco County Recycling Coordinator: Waste management and recycling at special events – from sports games, to music festivals, to county fairs, etc. – can be a challenging behind-the-scenes job for any event coordinator. But, if an event effectively handles its trash, then recycling collection can be a simple extension of that function. The job becomes easier the earlier in the process it is planned. By utilizing some proven techniques and effective communication the job can run smoothly.

There are several key areas to enhance Recycling at special events:

1) Clear, simple communication about trash and recycling. How will you tell people you're recycling?

2) Site examples of getting a buy-in from everyone… from sponsors to vendors to volunteers to attendees;

3) What is the majority of your trash? Do you know what you can recycle?

4) How convenient is it for your participants and visitors to deposit both trash and recyclables?

5) How do you determine who and how will the collection and disposal of both trash and recyclables?

Presents

The Greater Dade City Chamber of Commerce Annual KUMQUAT FESTIVAL

Dade City's Biggest, Most Distinctive Event
Saturday, January 28th 2012 • From 9am to 5pm

Come and enjoy the unique, quaint and family fun of "old Florida" during our Kumquat Festival™ in historic downtown Dade City - it's one of a kind!!!

The Dade City Chamber of Commerce has established a flagship event that celebrates everything that makes Dade City unique while encouraging visitors to participate. Since the nearby town of St. Joseph was already known as the Kumquat Capital of the World, the Chamber of Commerce decided that this little fruit with a funny name could be the focus of an annual festival.

As many as 40,000 people attend our one day event every year, with over 350 vendors participating, filling our historic Downtown core. Here, visitors can enjoy all kinds of tasty kumquat treats, from kumquat pie to kumquat cookies, smoothies, ice cream, marmalade, and even kumquat salsa.

Dade City's Annual Kumquat Festival™, held the last Saturday in January each year, has become extremely popular for its homegrown, family-friendly entertainment. Visitors can listen to local entertainment, get their face painted, look at antique cars, and shop for arts and crafts. There are also 5k and 10k races/walks and a recipe contest where you can invent or re-invent your favorite dishes using kumquats. Our Downtown Merchant's Window Decorating Contest and Kumquat Growers' Open House are part of the festivities that round out our Kumquat Festival™ month in January.

The Dade City Chamber of Commerce utilizes the Kumquat Festival™ to highlight the Dade City and East Pasco County area. It is also an excellent opportunity for local businesses, schools, and non-profits to promote themselves. Many of our visitors come back after the Festival to see the Historic Courthouse and experience more of everything there is to enjoy in downtown Dade City.

One of the most charming stories to emerge from the Kumquat Festival™ is the story of regular visitors Regina Polsky and Jerry Witts. They met each other the first time they visited the Kumquat Festival™. They soon fell in love, and [illegible] later announced that they were [illegible]. They told the Chamber that they wanted a private wedding service performed by a notary; but Lucy Arthur, a staff member, felt that they deserved a full-blown wedding. She recruited local businesses to help out in any way they could. They provided everything from flowers to kumquat pie. The wedding was held in the Courthouse Square and the couple was escorted to the wedding by trolley. Together, the entire community gave Regina and Jerry a romantic, unforgettable wedding with a distinct Dade City touch. We enjoy seeing Regina and Jerry each year as the come back to the festival to celebrate their anniversary.
