The Zoning/Code Compliance Division recommends denial or approval of a Special Exception Application only after study and consideration of the following items, where applicable, as listed under the Pasco County Land Development Code, Chapter 400, Section 402.4.E:

1. That the request is consistent with the Goals, Objectives, and Policies of the adopted Comprehensive Plan elements or applicable portions thereof.

2. The proposed use will not create or excessively increase traffic or parking congestion or otherwise affect public safety.

3. The site upon which the proposed use is to be located has suitable drainage, access, ingress and egress, on-site parking, loading and unloading areas, refuse collection, and adequate utilities available to service the site.

4. The site upon which the Special Exception is to be located has, or will have, screening and buffering sufficient to prevent interference with the enjoyment of adjoining or surrounding properties.

5. Proposed signs and lighting will not create any adverse glare or adversely affect traffic safety, economic value, or cause other significant problems on adjoining or surrounding properties.

6. That there is adequate yard and open space to serve the property upon which the Special Exception use will be maintained.

REQUIREMENTS FOR PUBLIC NOTICE SHALL APPLY TO ALL REZONINGS, CONDITIONAL USES & SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS.

The applicant/representative is responsible to provide public notice for all rezoning, conditional use, and special exception applications. Public notice consists of a written notice letter sent via United States Post Office to all property owners with 500-feet of the subject property and posting a Public Notice/Public Hearing sign on the subject property at least 14 days prior to the hearing(s); and, providing a notarized affidavit attesting to providing public notice at least 10 days prior to the public hearing(s). Depending on the type and scope of the application, a Neighborhood Meeting may be required. After submitting your application, Pasco County will provide additional instructions, sample forms for written notice and affidavit, and a mailing list of property owners within 500-feet of the subject property. Specialized public notice sign is available from Planning and Development Department for a nominal fee. Pasco County will publish a public notice in a newspaper of general circulation at least 14 days prior to the hearing(s).

____ I prefer to receive correspondence pertaining to the application via EMAIL.
